

Hello all,

I hope that this bulletin find you and your families are all well. I've been so impressed this week with all of the wonderful images that have been sent in. We have a very creative group of pupils at Altrincham College and I'm excited to share some of their talents with you.

Yet again, you have all continued to impress us with your effort and resilience this week. Well done. The form in each year group who received the most praise points on ClassCharts last week were 7.3, 8.1, 9.2, 10.3, 11.1, 12.2 and 13.3, congratulations!

English

Miss Greenhalgh would like to say well done to Jack in 7.3 who is really making a big effort in contributing to online lessons and submitting work, Vedasai, Grace and Hayden in 8.2 for their excellent effort in lessons, and Harry in 10A/E4 for always being prompt to lessons.

Mrs Crossley would like to nominate the following pupils:

For the effort they put into their work creating an interview inspired by Simon Armitage's poem 'Give'.

Irisha in 9.3 and Emma in 9.2

For creating an entertaining monologue inspired by Simon Armitage's poem 'Give'.

Isabella in 9.6

For writing a letter that contained some lovely vocabulary inspired by Simon Armitage's poem 'Give'.

Rulin in 9.2

For contributing responses during remote lessons followed by work completed to a good standard.

Jack in 11.5 and Millie in 11.6

For a good standard of work handed in on a regular basis.

Ella in 11.4

Mrs Crossley has also shared a wonderful poem written by Isabella in 9.6.

*On the beach next to me sat a girl,
with hair as golden as the sun.
The ghost of her smile was gone,
as crystal tears ran down her cheek,
and formed droplets on the back of hands.
The man stood in front of her.
A nervous wreck. In his trembling hand, were a dozen roses his last failing tactic.
And just like that their flaming passion, was burnt out.*

Mrs Hirst's year 7 class have produced some cut up poetry. We have some great examples here from Zoe, Aania, Harry and Abi in 7.5.

Mrs Hirst would also like to congratulate some of her year 11 pupils as they should be incredibly proud of their ability to manage deadlines, work independently and produce engaging writing:

Sahar, Anthea, Liv, Charlie, Maisie, Jess, Anya and Eleanor.

Mr Larkin would like to nominate Tom in his Year 10 GCSE PE class for engaging so well with the lessons.

Pastoral

Mrs Wagstaff and the PSMs would like to congratulate year 7 and 8 on another fantastic week, well done! They say:

It was lovely to see so many of you in the assemblies last week and I hope you are managing to complete the step challenge I set you.

Keep up with the fantastic work and engagement in lessons, you really are doing amazing!

Finally, James in 9.3 has been keeping his family well fed by learning some life skills and cooking them breakfast, lunch and dinner! As you can see from the picture below, James' practise is paying off, it looks absolutely delicious!

As I said last week, please don't be disappointed if you didn't see your name in the praise bulletin this week. Carry on working hard and your teachers will nominate you. Also, if there are more than one of you in your class with the same name, and you're not sure if the teacher is referring to you, just send an email to ask.

Alongside your academic work, we'd really like to know what else you've been doing and how you're staying positive, so please stay in touch with your form tutors and teachers and send us an email to let us know how you're getting on.

I hope that you have a safe and happy week, and keep up the fantastic work.

Kind regards,
Mrs Jones
