

PRIVACY NOTICE – GOVERNORS AND TRUSTEES

How we use Governor and Trustee information

Altrincham College is committed to ensuring that we're transparent about the ways in which we use your personal information and that we have the right controls in place to ensure it is used responsibly and is kept safe from inappropriate access, theft or misuse.

This privacy notice explains how we use your personal information and tells you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you.

We collect your information to:

- enable you to serve as a Governor or Trustee
- comply with our statutory safeguarding obligations
- deliver appropriate training
- effectively manage the school
- fulfil statutory reporting to the Department for Education.

The categories of Governor and Trustee information that we process include

- Personal information such as:
 - Name
 - DOB
 - Address
 - Contact information (e.g. email address, telephone numbers)
 - Gender
 - National insurance number
 - Pecuniary interests
 - DBS checks.

Why we collect and use Governor and Trustee information

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the legal basis for processing personal information for general purposes are:

- Processing is necessary to comply with the legal obligations of the controller.
- Processing is necessary for tasks in the public interest or exercise of authority vested in the controller.

Our lawful basis for collecting and processing your information is also further defined under Article 9, as some of the information we process is deemed to be special categories of personal data. The following extracts from the GDPR apply;

- The data subject has given explicit consent.
- It is necessary to fulfil the obligations of controller or of data subject.
- It is in the public interest.

Collecting Governor and Trustee information

We collect personal information via individual Governors and Trustees. Governor and Trustee data is essential for the school's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing Governor and Trustee information

Any information about a governing body member is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your term as a governor at the school. Once your term(s) of office with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our retention policy. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please see our Retention Scheduled.

Who we share Governor and Trustee information with

We routinely share information with appropriate third parties, including:

- The Department for Education (DFE)
- Ofsted
- Police forces, courts, tribunals
- Local Authority
- School Website in line with DfE Academy Regulations
- Governor Services Provider
- Parents/Carers and Students
- Employees

Why we share school Governor and Trustee information

We do not share information about our governors and trustees with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Department for Education

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. Under s.538 of the Education Act 1996, and the Academies Financial Handbook, the Secretary of State requires boards to provide certain details they hold about people involved in governance, as volunteered by individuals, and the information kept up to date.

Data collection requirements

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those governing schools (including single and multi-academy trusts (MATs)) and all schools are required to ensure they keep their governors details up to date under s.538 of the Education Act 1996, and the Academies Financial Handbook.

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censusesfor-schools>

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information please contact Beth Maher to make a request or alternatively you can view our Data Subject Rights Policy at www.altrinchamcollege.com.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
